Summer Activities Foretell "A Productive Year"

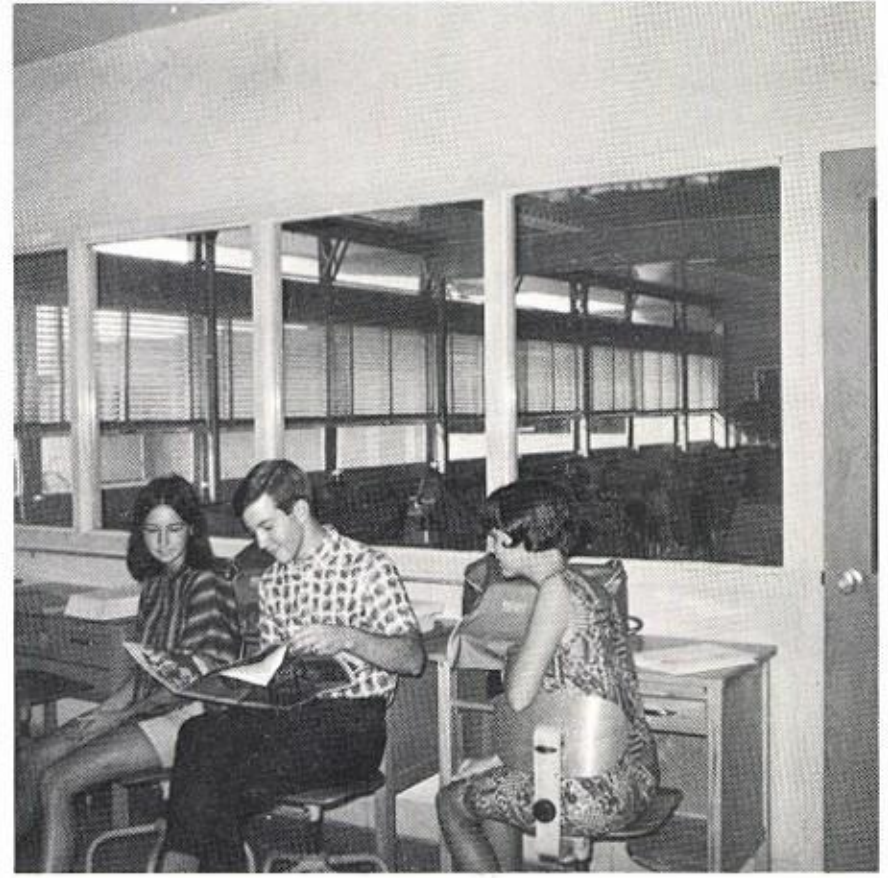

Vacation time finds ambitious SHS'ers attending classes, workshops and institutes. Four yearbook staffers attend Brevard Workshop and visit Delmar, our JACKET publisher, to increase their journalistic knowledge while Bruce and Mike delve into KU and UT summer science programs. Back in Stephenville, seventy early risers earn one-half credit in English or Civics, while fifteen eager beavers gain a full credit in the newly-created geometry class. Climaxing summer work and fun, Seniors, to avoid the October rush, heed the August "Come as you are" invitation for annual pictures.

Varsity Honors Eight, Four in Queen's Court

Proclaiming that the Jacket Varsity has chosen two girls from each class, John announces Tula, Barbara, Sherry, Connie, Debbie, Kathy, Molly, and Sara as Queen nominees. A week later he reveals that the Varsity vote has named Barbara, Sherry, Tula, and Molly to the Queen's Court. Then, preceding the Azle game Ronnie crowns Molly, the '67 Football Queen.

Bang! Bang!

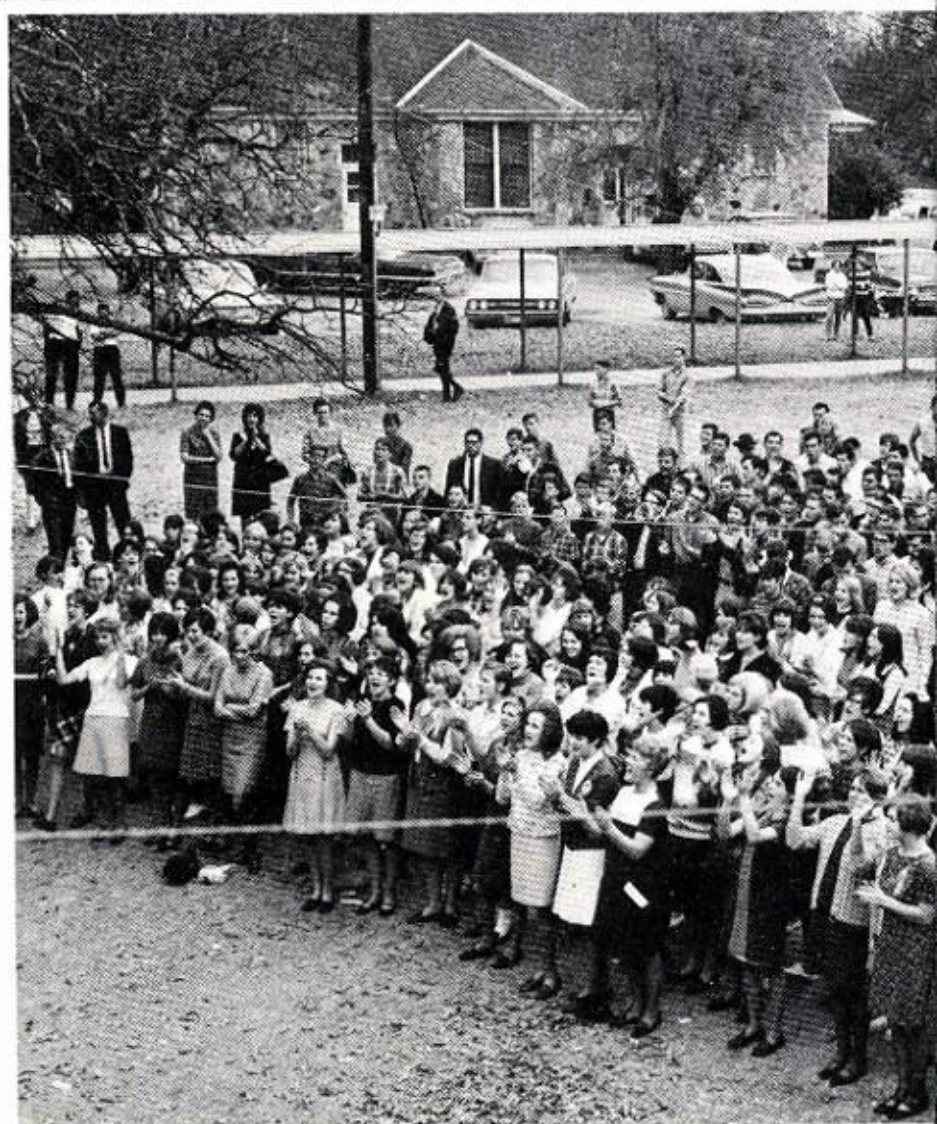

Spirit Breaks Loose

Triggering a busy week of Homecoming activities, a real live "Shoot-Out" offers free period excitement. Wednesday, Dress-Up Day emphasizes a striking contrast to regular school dress, when boys submit to wearing suits and ties and girls display the latest fall fashions and stacked heels. Then Clash Day, new to SHS, presents some strange combinations in both student and teacher attire. Quiet Day (when of all things annual club pictures are being made) precedes PEP RALLY, the last for many SHS Seniors. Climaxing the week's activities, the Jackets suffer defeat at the hands of the Mineral Wells Rams, Sara receives the Queen's crown, and dancers respond to the music of the Continentals.

SHS Hosts Roundball Tourney

Of the fourteen SHS Senior girls who enter the first JUNIOR MISS CONTEST, Karen Keeney is second runner-up, Janie Harwell, runner-up and Sharon Stewart, Junior Miss. Sharon represents Stephenville in the State Junior Miss Contest in New Braunfels.

Area seniors attend the TCU Career Day where they hear Congressman Jim Wright speak on the value of education. SHS'ers chat with Mr. Wright and attend lectures. At home, underclassmen sample career ideas from visiting consultants.

VOE state delegates are Gwen Sharp, Vivian Lee, Mary Leatherwood, Carolyn Davis, and Kay Massingill. Vivian and Gwen enter scrapbooks in Chapter of the Year and Activities Manual contests placing second and sixth.

QV historian, Karen Ware, accepts the first place plaque for SHS at the TALA convention in McAllen.

SHS holds Open House to welcome parents and friends and to acquaint them with both academic and extra-curricular programming.

SHS enters twelve students in district UIL literary competition. Those participating are Martha Adams, Norma Ferguson, Ross Wolfe, Beth Black, Sue Cranford, Jerry Rankin, Stanley Carpenter, Steve Meers, Mike Cedars, and Barbara Williams. SHS scores a record 132 points and is second in the meet. Ross, Beth, Sue, Stanley, Mike, and Barbara also compete at regional where Mike is first in his division. He then goes to Austin and places fifth in the State Number Sense Contest.

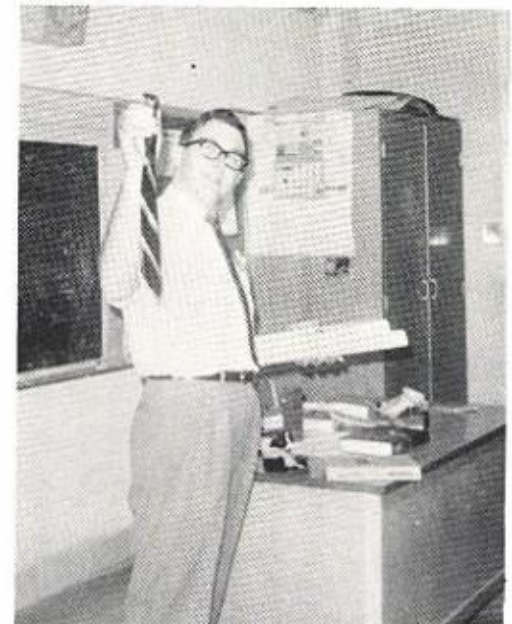

SPRING HIGHLIGHTS . . .

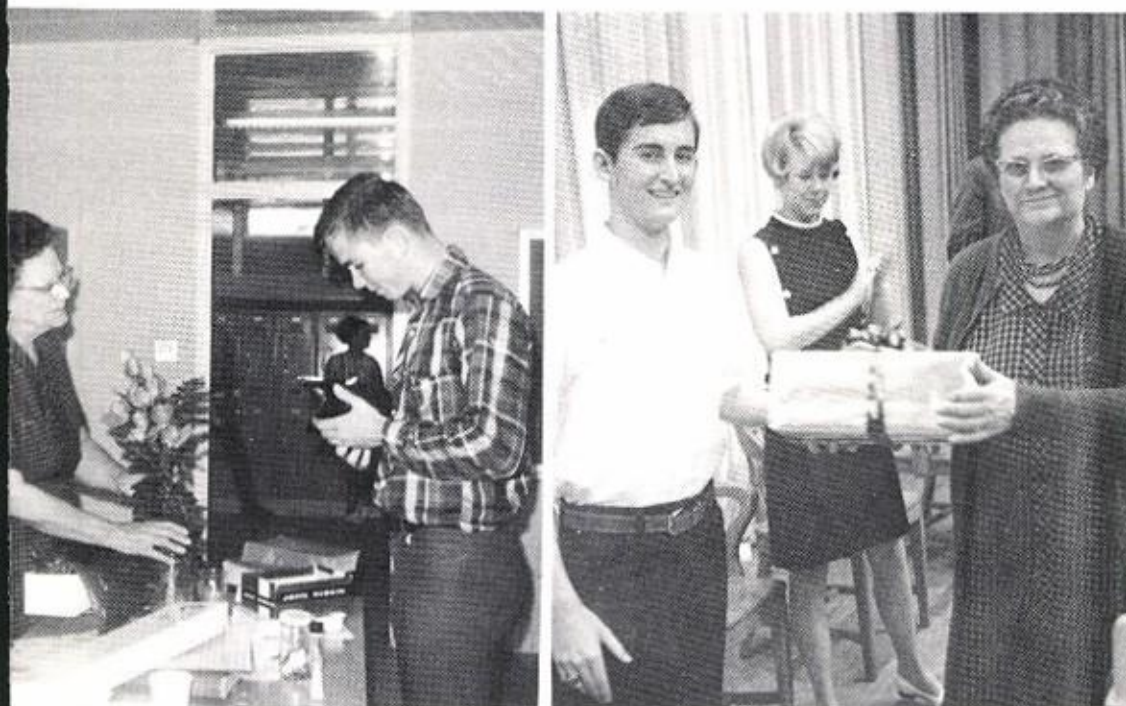

Coach Gus's cinderfellas win four trophies for SHS.

Joyce Dove, Mike Cranford, Suzan Smith, and John Pigott are SHS's first delegates to a NHS state convention. They find Pemberton High School very interesting!

It's All in a day's work for student teacher Ralph Ammons.

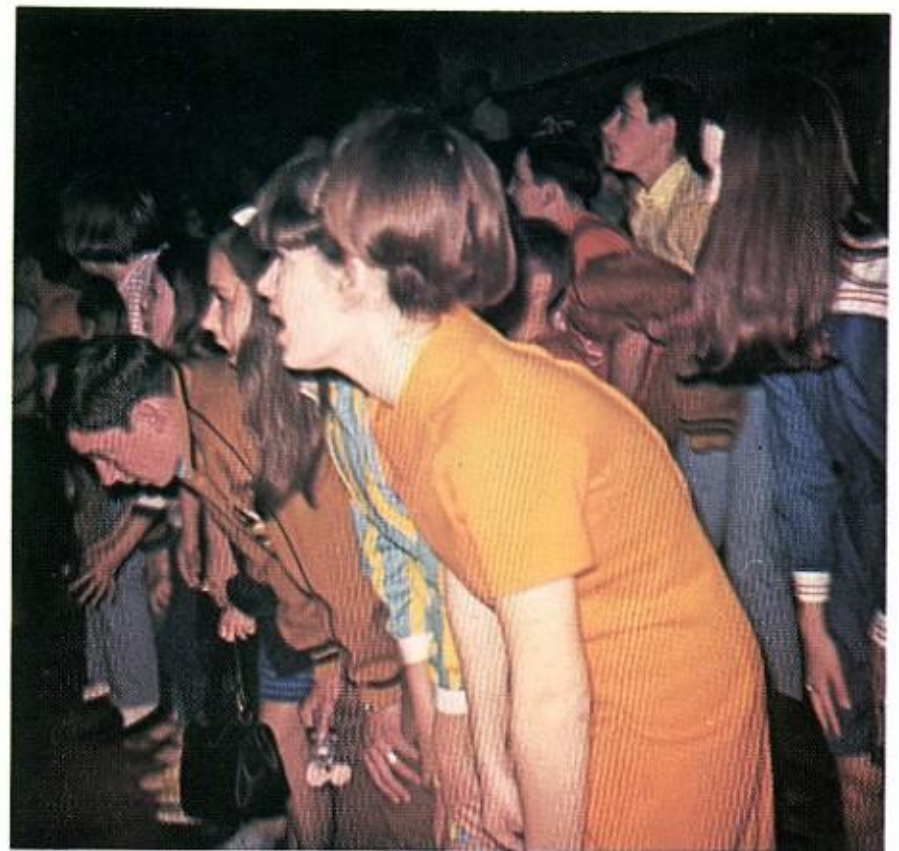

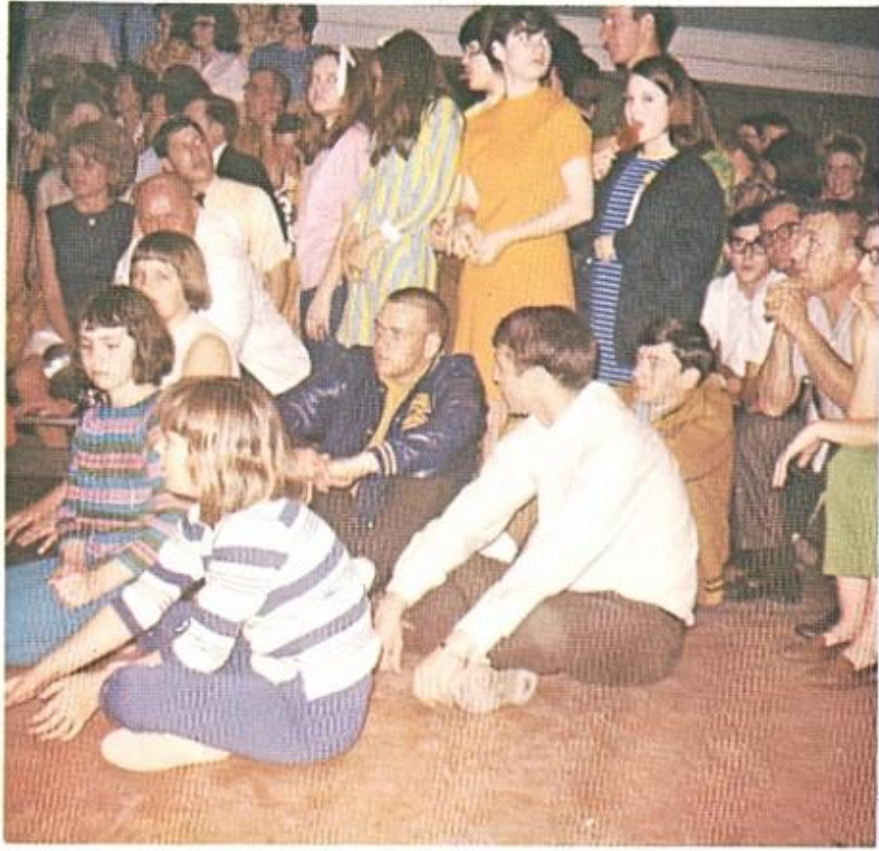

May, 1968, marks the end of a forty-two year teaching career in Stephenville Schools for Miss Gayle Russell. Her dedication and devotion to duty has turned out thousands of students well versed in history and government. Some of the highlights of her tenure at SHS have been organizing Stephenville's CTA and acting as its first president, co-sponsoring the Student Participation Committee (now known as Student Council) for fourteen years, and reviving the high school annual by sponsoring the SPC publication of the first "Yellow Jacket" in 1937. In a farewell note to the faculty Miss Russell says, "I leave my heart in Stephenville High School."

ACADEMICS . . .

A Vital Component in the Search

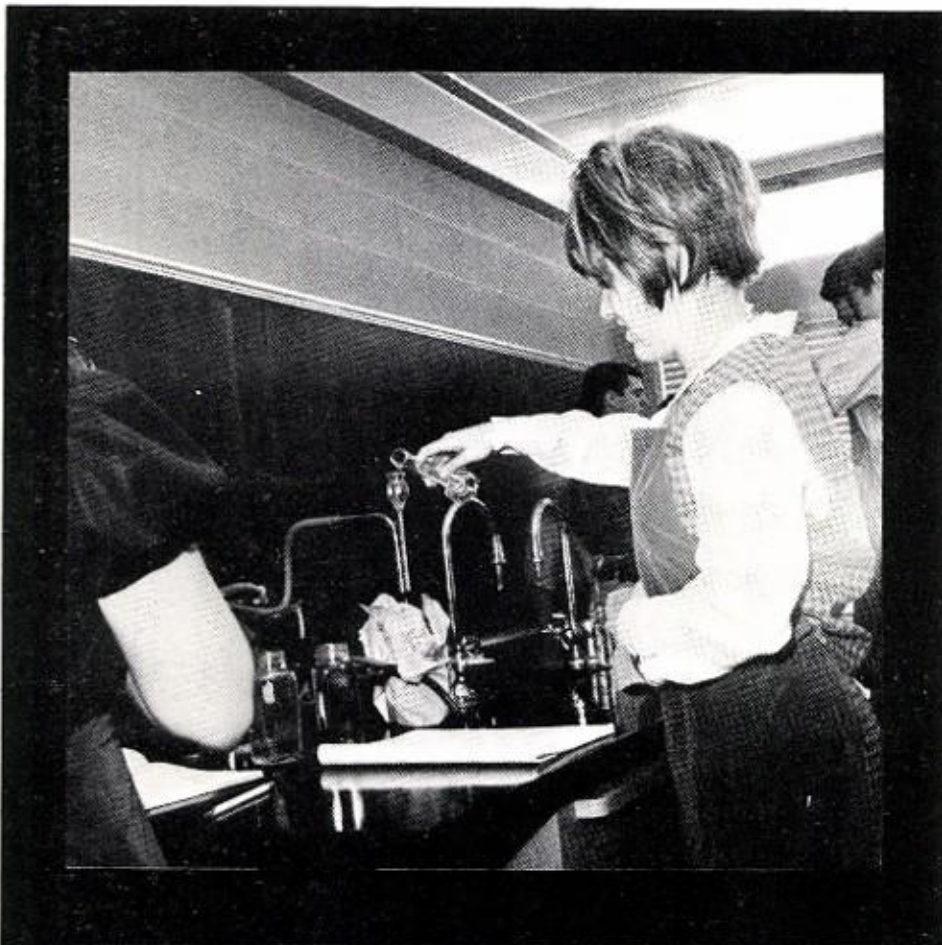

CLASSES . . .

A Composite of Eager Minds,

for Knowledge, Fostering Ideas, Ambitions

Searching, Building Lasting Friendships

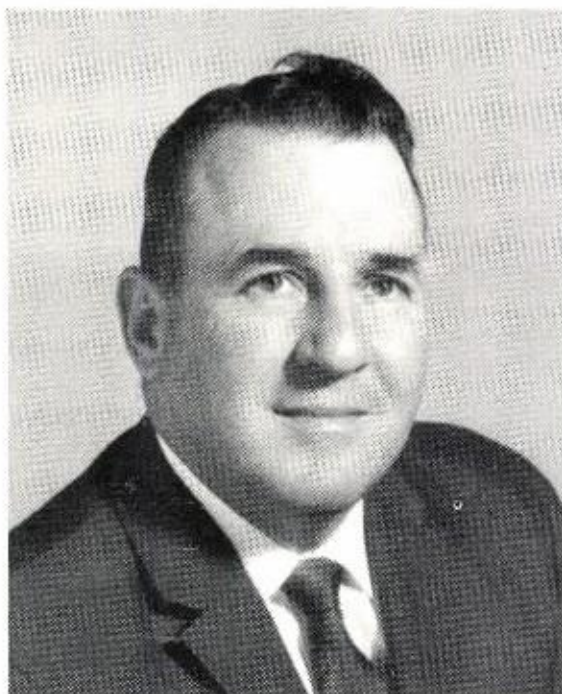

In various ways Stephenville High's faculty creates lasting impressions on each student. They make an effort to understand problems by conferences; they sponsor organizations and direct class projects. They attend sports events, sweating out grueling games with true school spirit. They chaperone dances and sometimes take a whirl around the floor themselves. They continuously strive to maintain close teacher-student relations. Through his studies, new worlds are opened for a Stephenville High Jacket. He can see life in a drop of water, or explore mysteries of an "unknown" number. He learns to support his arguments with facts and sometimes stays up late at night with complex chemistry problems or sentence diagrams. Through academic channels a student can develop closer relations with faculty members. New ideas lead to discoveries and interests; he is able to plot his future from his SHS background.

Top Boss at SHS

As superintendent of Stephenville Public Schools, Mr. J.C. Helm, Jr. devotes many hours each day to improving the overall school program, supervising personnel, and budgeting funds for needed facilities. He does, however, find time to speak a few "words of wisdom" to National Honor Society inductees. He also joins forces with Mr. Hilmar Crane and Mr. Joel Graham at a kick-off breakfast for the United Fund Drive. Mr. Helm's integrity, dependability, and co-operation form a strong link between school and community.

Workers in Background Keep Schools

Responsible for Stephenville bus maintenance and transporting students to and from school, Mr. Bob Haggard arranges for substitute drivers when needed and provides buses for special SHS trips.

SHS bus drivers come in all shapes, forms, and fashions, and even though the routes are sometimes muddy, these kind gentlemen do their best to see that students get to school on time.

Mr. Jimmie Evatt cares for the old building, mows the grass, and rings the bells for regular classes and short periods on assembly days.

Menus . . . menus . . . menus . . . Mrs. Lois Thomas, lunch-room dietitian and supervisor, plans one hundred seventy-five each year.

Safe, Clean, Pleasant, and Comfortable

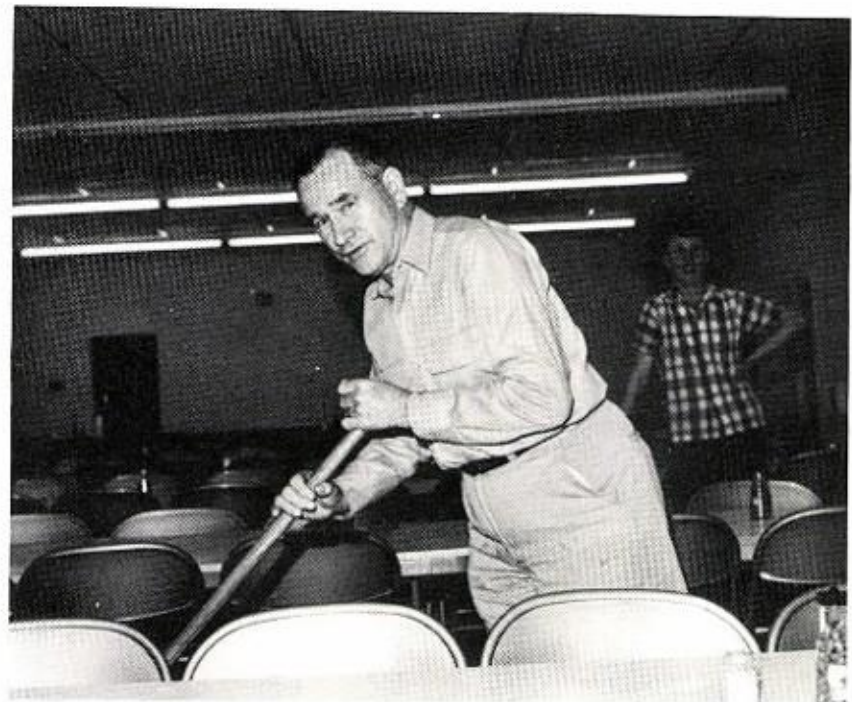

Blue shirt, gray pants, red handkerchief . . . clues to the identity of Mr. Litterbug . . . Who could it be? Mr. Logan, of course! Besides keeping our campus clean and attractive, he's everybody's friend.

Carrying a key to just about anything, Mr. Litterbug's helper, alias Mrs. Maxie Logan, puts "all trash before the broom."

The cafeteria primes for student onslaught.

Lunchroom staff assistant, Mr. Ernest Cork, lends a helping hand in the maintenance and smooth operation of the school cafeterias.

Teachers get hungry too . . . believe it or not. These are regulars in the high school lunchroom.

Principal Shapes SHS Prestige . . .

School prestige rests not only on size and academic achievement, but on individuals as well. Yet, it takes more than extraordinary teachers and students to build a reputation. Stephenville High's success is due largely to the professional skill of its administrators. As principal, Mr. George B. Gilbert acts as administrative foreman for a curriculum, constantly changing to meet the needs of students. Thirty-hour days would just about give him enough time to attend to his many duties. In his fourth year as principal, Mr. Gilbert continues to cope with attendance problems, pacify teachers, visit with parents, and attend extra-curricular activities. In everything he does, Mr. Gilbert's enthusiasm makes his Jacket spirit contagious.

Mr. George Benson Gilbert PRINCIPAL

Absenteeism, Parking Problems, Testing “Keep Kounselor Kitchens Kooking”

One of the many hobbies Mr. Kitchens enjoys is making peanut brittle. Here he takes time out from his busy schedule to demonstrate the fine points of this culinary art for Mrs. Davis's homemaking class.

Offering congratulations, Mr. Kitchens presents Stanley Carpenter his National Merit Award in a regular Wednesday assembly.

Office Personnel Helps Solve Continual Student Perplexities

With a contagious smile Jerry Stem, the efficient school mail boy, begins his daily round in Mr. Gilbert's office.

Health Classes Stress Better Living For a Better You

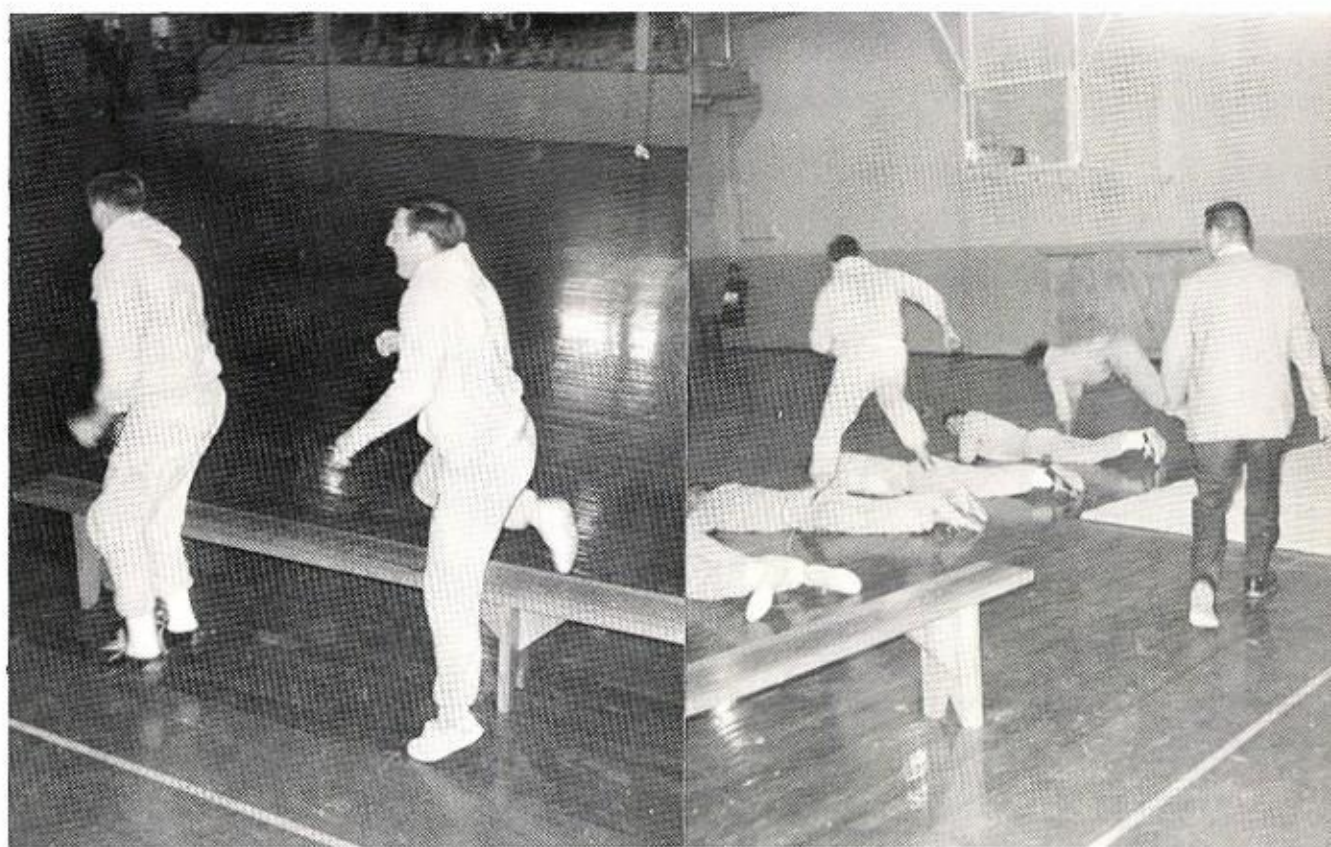

Coach Johncour and Mrs. Leatherwood, SHS health teachers, use visual aids to make class work more meaningful.

Physical Education, Sports Promote Physical and Mental Progress . . .

Languages Foster Friendships . . .

Mesdames Shipp, Golden, Jackson, Isbell, Shannon, and Oglesby, SHS English teachers, check library reading lists for the newest books acceptable for required reading reports.

Mrs. Laird is "all smiles" when the Spanish Club presents her a cameo pen at their annual banquet.

Mrs. Golden, English teacher and annual adviser, mails two sixteen-page signatures and brings work on the 1968 JACKET closer to an end.

"Frustrated Floating Teacher" well describes Mrs. Oglesby who, having no homeroom, conducts daily classes in five different places.

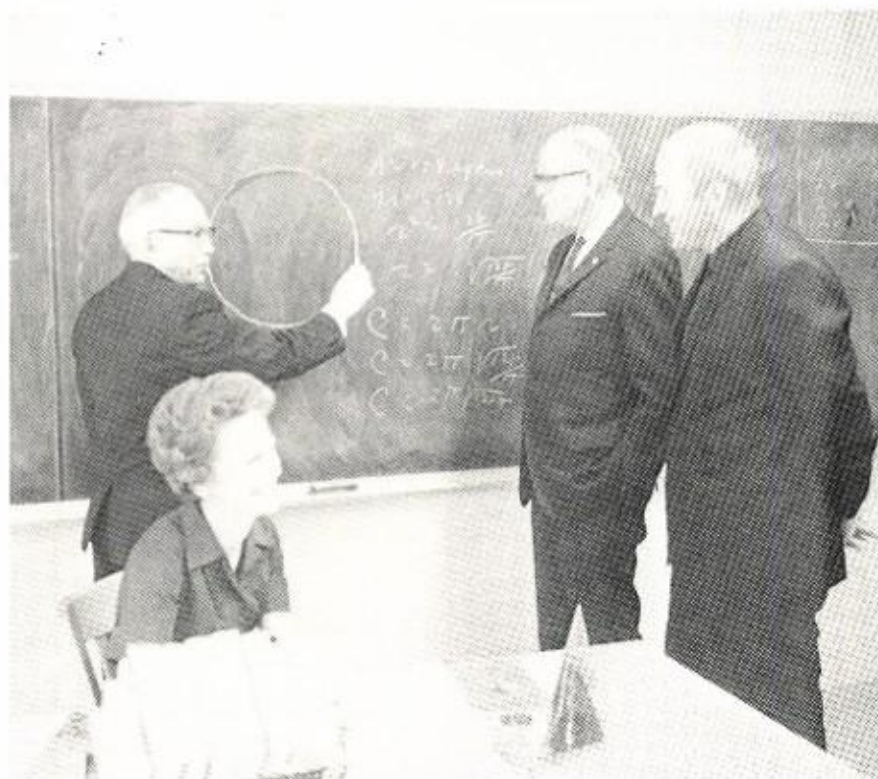

Faculty members are just as enthused at pep rallies as students are . . . well, most of the time.

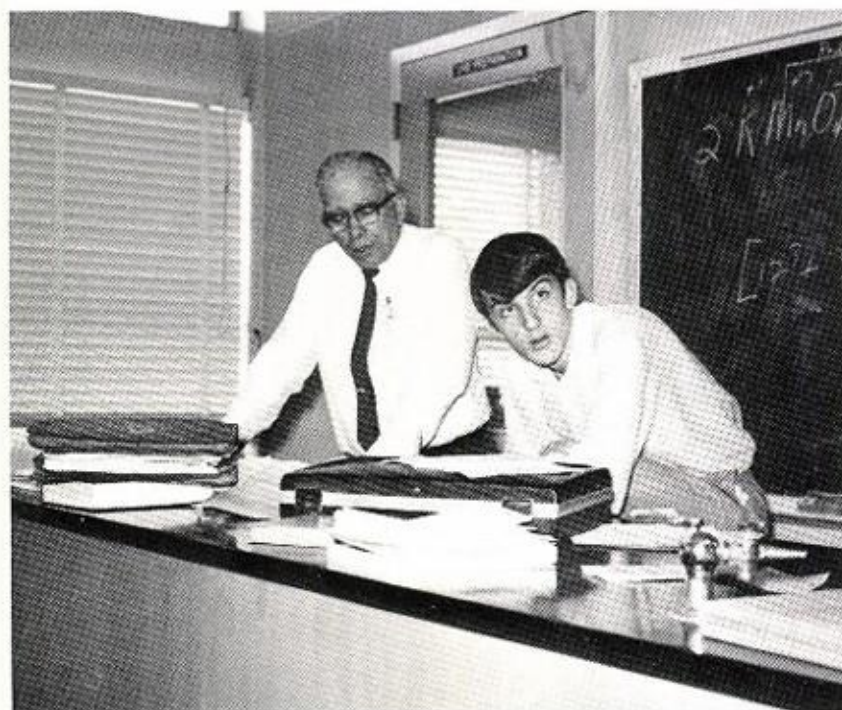

Mrs. Isbell smiles after hearing the senior bequest of half the class to her.

Mrs. Shannon again honors Sophomores with a Christmas tea; guest speakers are Mr. Arch Evans, Rev. Leslie Green, and Mrs. C. O. McMillan.

Finding the circumference of a circle with an area of 128 square centimeters is another of those "fun" problems for Mrs. Fain, Mr. Crabtree, Mr. Pilcher, and Coach Henderson. At right Mr. Crabtree coaches Mike Cedars, SHS's number one Number Sense contestant.

Mathematics . . . A Mental Challenge

Even teachers find time for conversation before the daily routine begins.

TSC's cool Student Center is the site for August In-Service Training workshop for SHS teachers.

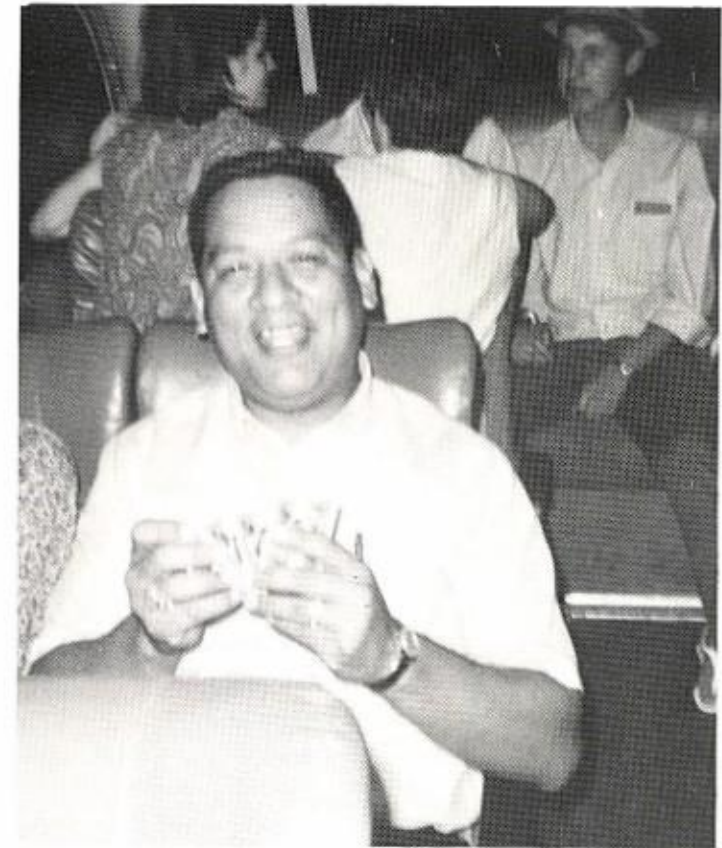

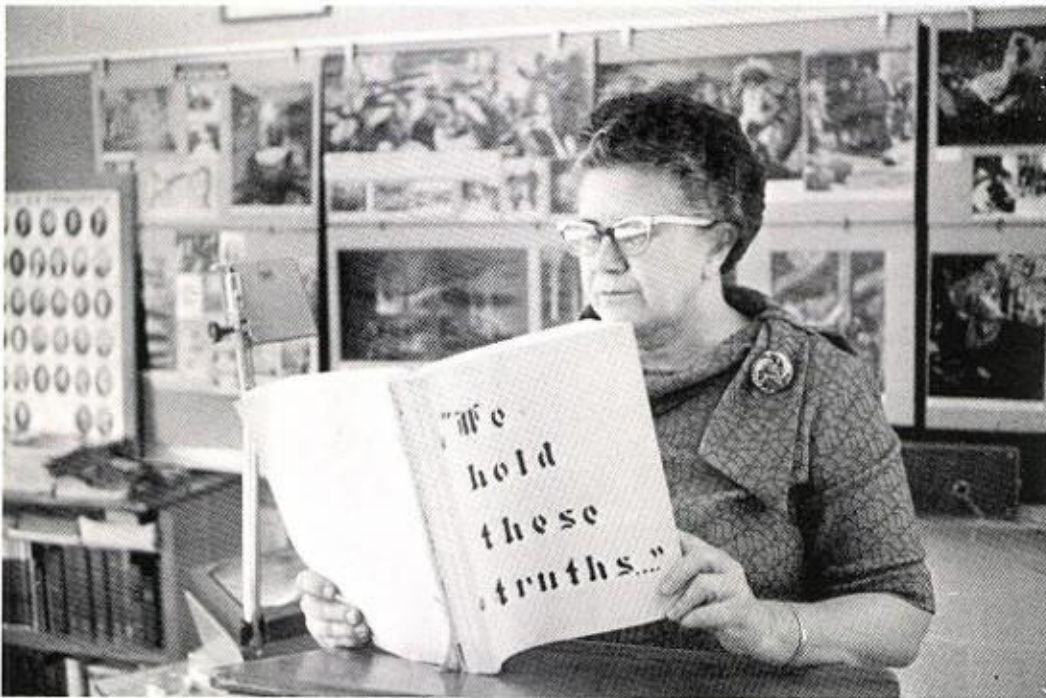

Science . . . The Building Block of Mankind

SHS science teachers, Coach Taylor, Mr. Meixner, Mr. Williams, Coach Keeney, Coach Johncour, and Mr. Crabtree, find cell division and reproduction models fascinating.

Reference books are an important source of information for Coach Hernandez, Miss Williams, Miss Russell, Coach Norwood, and Mrs. Leatherwood, SHS history teachers.

Seniors find Coach Hernandez quite a card at Black Jack.

In addition to her already copy-righted Histingo game, Miss Williams adds a book, "We hold these truths . . .," to her credit.

"From LBJ? Then it can't be for me!" exclaims Miss Russell as Mr. Stephens presents a gift from the faculty.

Aspiring Managers Study Commercial World

Business instructors, Mrs. Oglesby, Mrs. Deavenport, and Mrs. Shipp, chat about the latest typing techniques.

In addition to aiding bookkeeping students with practice set calculations, Mrs. Deavenport teaches shorthand and serves as director for the District UIL Shorthand competition.

Students Fasten Safety Belts and Take the Wheel for Driver's Ed.

Artists Display Projects; Musicians, Vocalists Perform for Programs

Mr. Harwell, Mr. Morton, and Mrs. Leatherwood get together to plan musical and artistic effects for the Chorus assembly program.

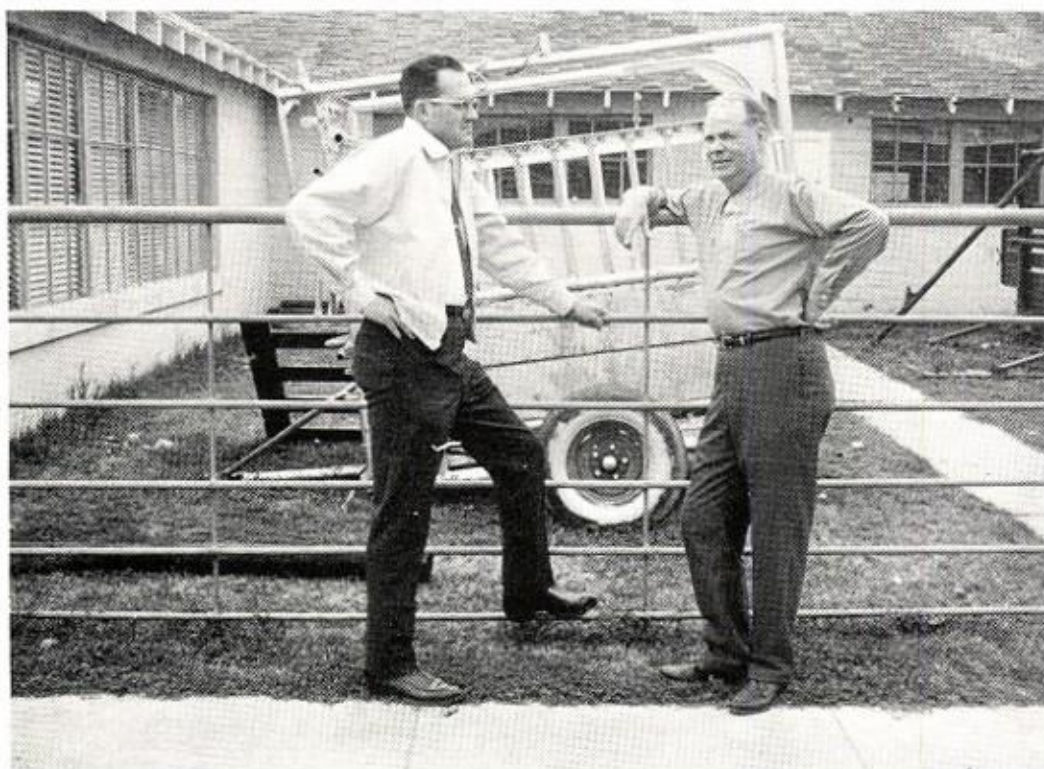

In a regular Wednesday assembly, Mrs. Davis presents Joyce Dove as the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow.

Mrs. Faye Greenway and Mrs. Rosellen Davis, SHS homemaking teachers, are always "cooking up" new surprises for their classes.

Mrs. Greenway assists FHA girls in selling home-game football programs.

Mr. Bill Hailey, Mr. Rex Stephens Direct SHS Vocational Ag Program

Mr. Bill Hailey is not only an Ag teacher but also a "camera bug."

Co-Operative Training Offers Learning, Experience

Members of the Co-Operative Training faculty are Mr. Willie Stephens for I C T, Mr. Rex Stephens for Co-Op Ag, Mrs. Evelyn Henderson for V O E, and Mr. John Hefton for D E.

Mr. Stephens, along with other school personnel, prepares bond election statistics to be mailed to all Stephenville taxpayers.

ACTIVITIES . . .

A Widening Scope of Life, Touching

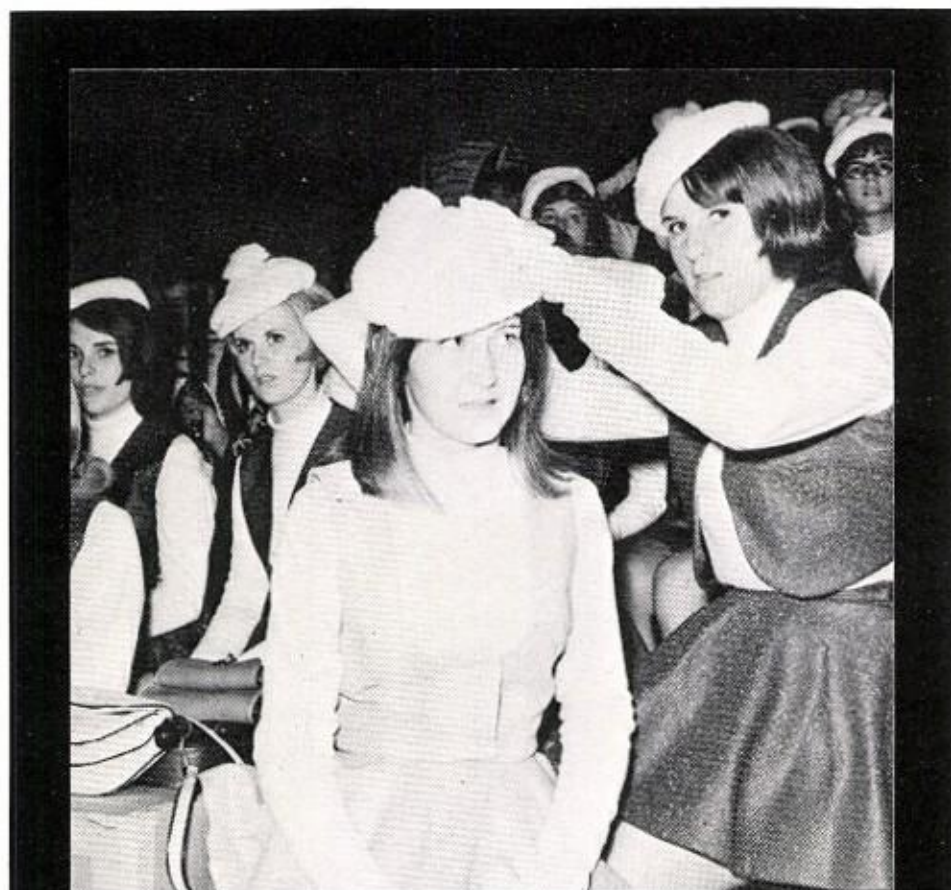

ORGANIZATIONS . . .

The Key Factors, Encouraging Growth

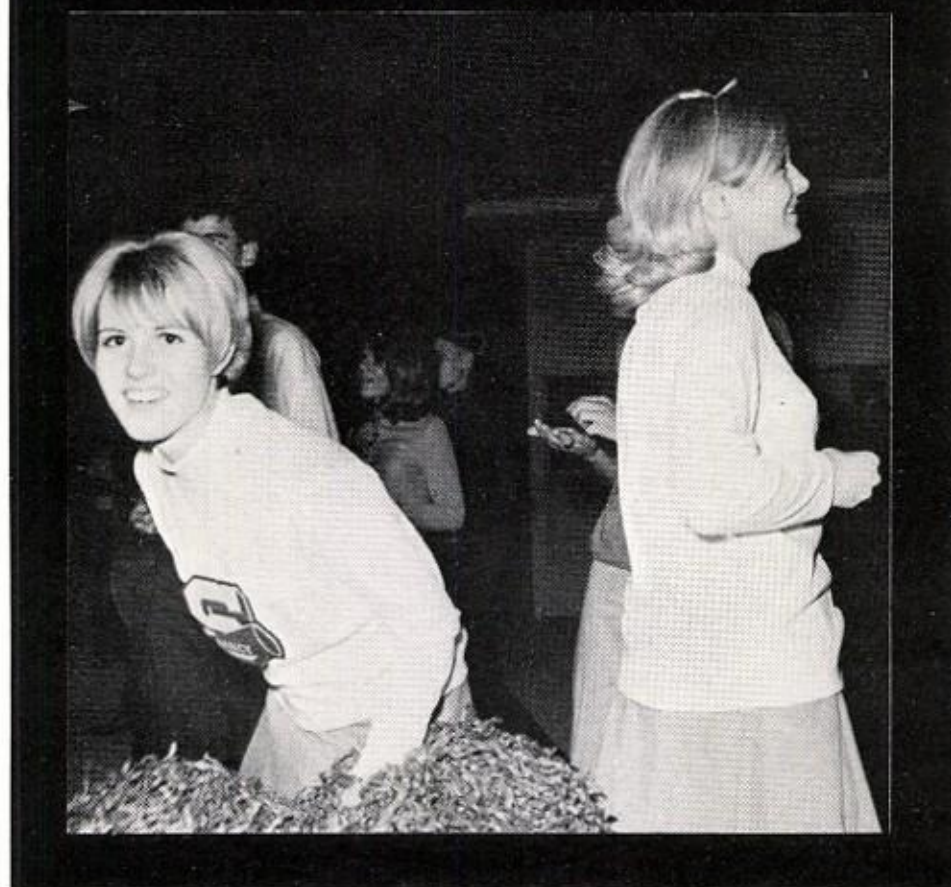

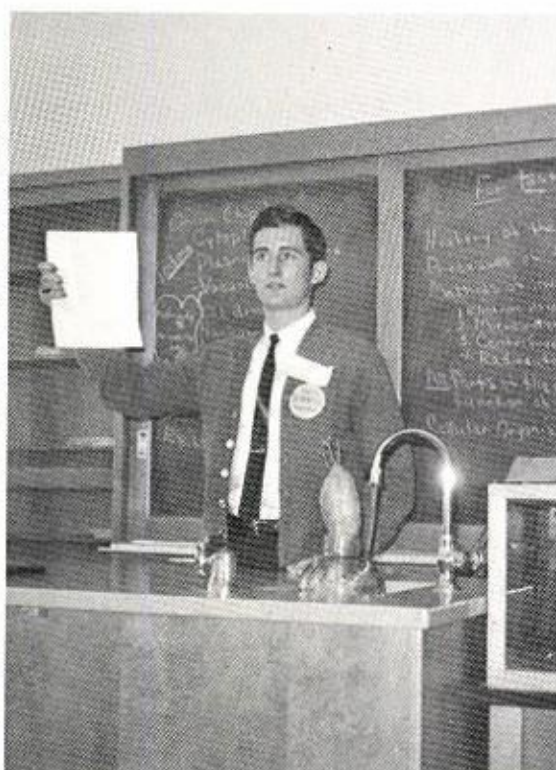

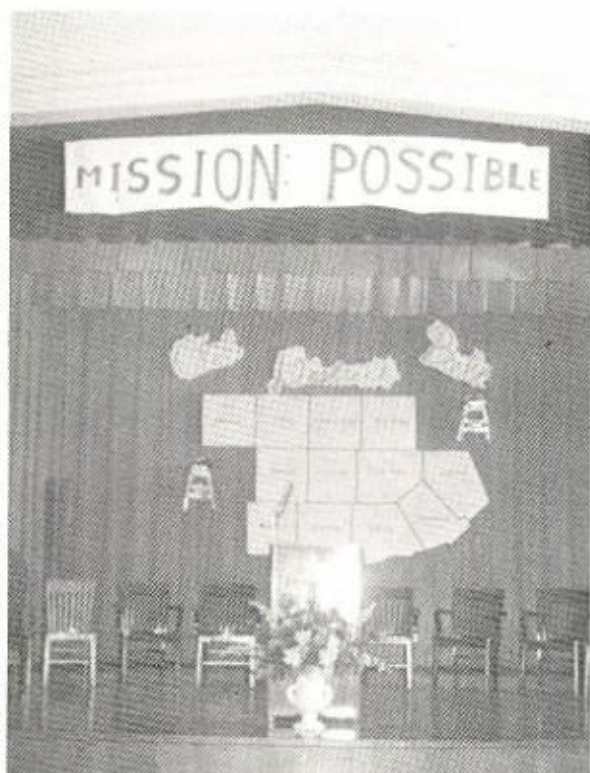

and Shaping Our Ends

of Capable Student Leadership

Extra-curricular activities keep SHS buzzing year 'round. People laughing and working together devote hours to concession sales, football games, parades, convention trips, dances, and school service. Sports are a major interest at SHS. Strained muscles and weary steps plague athletes as they go home at night after daily practice. Coaches not only teach their athletes co-ordination and endurance but also instill in them discipline, good judgment, and a sense of fair play. In stadium and gym, Jackets and Honeybees put forth extra effort to bring honor to their teams and to their school. Other organizations work to improve the school through publications, music, and boosting school spirit. Much of this work and many of the people who do it remain unnoticed. Yet, SHS depends on people to do these vital jobs. Meanwhile, clubs provide a gala social life for members. These groups donate gifts each year, but the best gift they offer is that of service.

FALL CONVENTION: "Mission Possible," suggested by Stephenville, is theme of Winters meeting where SHS also presents workshop and accepts nomination for District President.

Student Council Sets Pace for A PRODUCTIVE YEAR AT SHS

OFFICERS AND SPONSORS are (seated) Reporter Carolyn Davis, President John Cunyus, Corresponding Secretary Suzan Smith, Recording Secretary Mary Ann Leatherwood, (standing) Mr. Hailey, Vice-President Jerry Jackson, Treasurer Bruce McNellie, and Mrs. Jackson.

The Student Council is proud of its role in shaping a productive year. The thirty-two members and sponsors, Mrs. Jackson and Mr. Hailey, work with administration and faculty to create, consider, and carry out ideas — ideas born of the restless spirit of change. Service . . . you see it across the Rec Room counter, in the folding of the flag, in the wild colors of litter barrels reminding you to pick up that paper on the ground. Fun . . . you feel it in the music of the Homecoming Dance in November, find it contagious on "Sadie Hawkins Day," and share it at assemblies. Work . . . you see it done through committees. This year the Council studies plans for a school seal, new by-laws, and UIL recognition. In a word, the Student Council is preparation for productive leadership.

FRESHMEN MEMBERS are (seated) Randy Harding, Nat Wofford, Lynn Ulmer, Brad Barron, (standing) Kathy Hunter, Jolynne Hopson, and Sharon Smith.

First in Sight Reading, Second in Concert

As August rolls 'round, music fills the air . . . Band Style . . . forecasting a big musical boost at football games. Residents in the high school area begin hearing free concerts of shrill whistles, rhythmic drum cadences, and snappy marches. Band members concentrate their efforts out on the practice field to perfect their drills and to prepare for UIL marching contest where the Jacket Band rates a first division. Soon after marching contest, band members move inside the band hall to begin preparing for the concert season. At the UIL contests in Brownwood on April 27, SHS earns a first division in sightreading and a second division in concert. Band activities for the year end on a high note — measuring for uniforms and presenting a ten-cent concert on May 14.

Good Cheer Is More Than Just A Wish At SHS . . .

Tula, Tim, Nancy, Bruce, Debra, and Bob join hands at Homecoming to sing . . .

To The Blue, To The Gold

Here's a toast to Stephenville High,
We her praises ever sing,
Stand and cheer her name once again;
Loudly may her echoes ring.

Fill a glass for happy times,
Sons and daughters ever true,
Always holding deep in loyal hearts
The Spirit of the Gold and Blue.

To the Blue — to the Gold —
To our school and its glorious history;
To our faith — to our zeal —
To the days we remember so joyfully.

To the Blue — to the Gold —
May we carry our banner to victory;
To our hopes — to our dreams —
To the world we shall make ours someday.

Here's to all our glorious past,
Here's to our victories won —
Here's to glorious future years,
For our fame has just begun.

Fill a glass for happy times,
Sons and daughters ever true,
Always holding deep in loyal hearts
The Spirit of the Gold and Blue.

Coach Henderson Directs SHS Athletic Affairs

Elected last spring as head football coach and athletic director, Coach Johnnie Henderson, with the aid of returning SHS Coaches Bill Keeney, Barry Johncour, and Sam Taylor and two of his former assistant coaches from Forney High School Don Barry and Gus Hernandez, directs the sports and physical education program. Coach Richard Norwood joins the coaching staff in January to replace Coach Don Barry who resigns to answer a call to the world of business. Mrs. Leatherwood teaches Health for girls. Miss Smith coaches Freshman Honeybees and teaches P.E. for girls. Many boys participate in whatever sport is in season, going first from football, to basketball and then to one of the spring sports, track, golf, baseball or tennis. Girls play basketball, volleyball or tennis. Physical education classes for boys and for girls continue throughout the year. To meet graduation requirements, each student must take one semester of Health and three semesters of P.E. Some elect more credits in physical education or sports.

National Honor Society Heightens Academic Average

From students exemplifying outstanding character, scholarship, leadership and service, ten per cent of the juniors and fifteen per cent of the seniors are eligible for membership in the National Honor Society. Tapping takes place in the fall, followed by an induction banquet honoring new members and their parents. Under the direction of Mrs. Myrtle Deavenport the members move forward to fulfill their ideal of service by such projects as contributing to a kindergarten to finance the education of an underprivileged child and collecting books for local children. In the spring members vote two $50 T S C scholarships for Judi Houston and Jerry Rankin and, showing appreciation for all their teachers, give Mr. Crabtree a year's N E A membership. Also Joyce Dove, Suzan Smith, Mike Cranford, and John Pigott travel to Marshall as the first S H S delegates to attend a State N H S Convention. Hoping to encourage others to strive for membership, N H S hosts a picnic honoring students posting all A's for the fifth six-weeks.

Second Runner-Up Chapter of the Year

As Stephenville High's Vocational Office Education teacher co-ordinator, Mrs. Evelyn Henderson capably advises its OEA Club. Twenty-three students who attend classes one-half day also receive on-the-job training from as many employers. Routine typing, bookkeeping, filing and receptionist duties keep these student-workers busy three hours daily. Regular meetings and special projects give OEA members an enriched activity program. Having received the club charter, SHS members enter state competition and send delegates to the State OEA Convention at Galveston where SHS becomes second runner-up in Chapter of the Year contest and places sixth in Activities Manual contest. Delegates also enter production typing, shorthand, and ten key adding machine competition.

ADVERTISING . . .

An Important Ingredient of Free

COMMUNITY . . .

Stephenville Grows and Progresses,

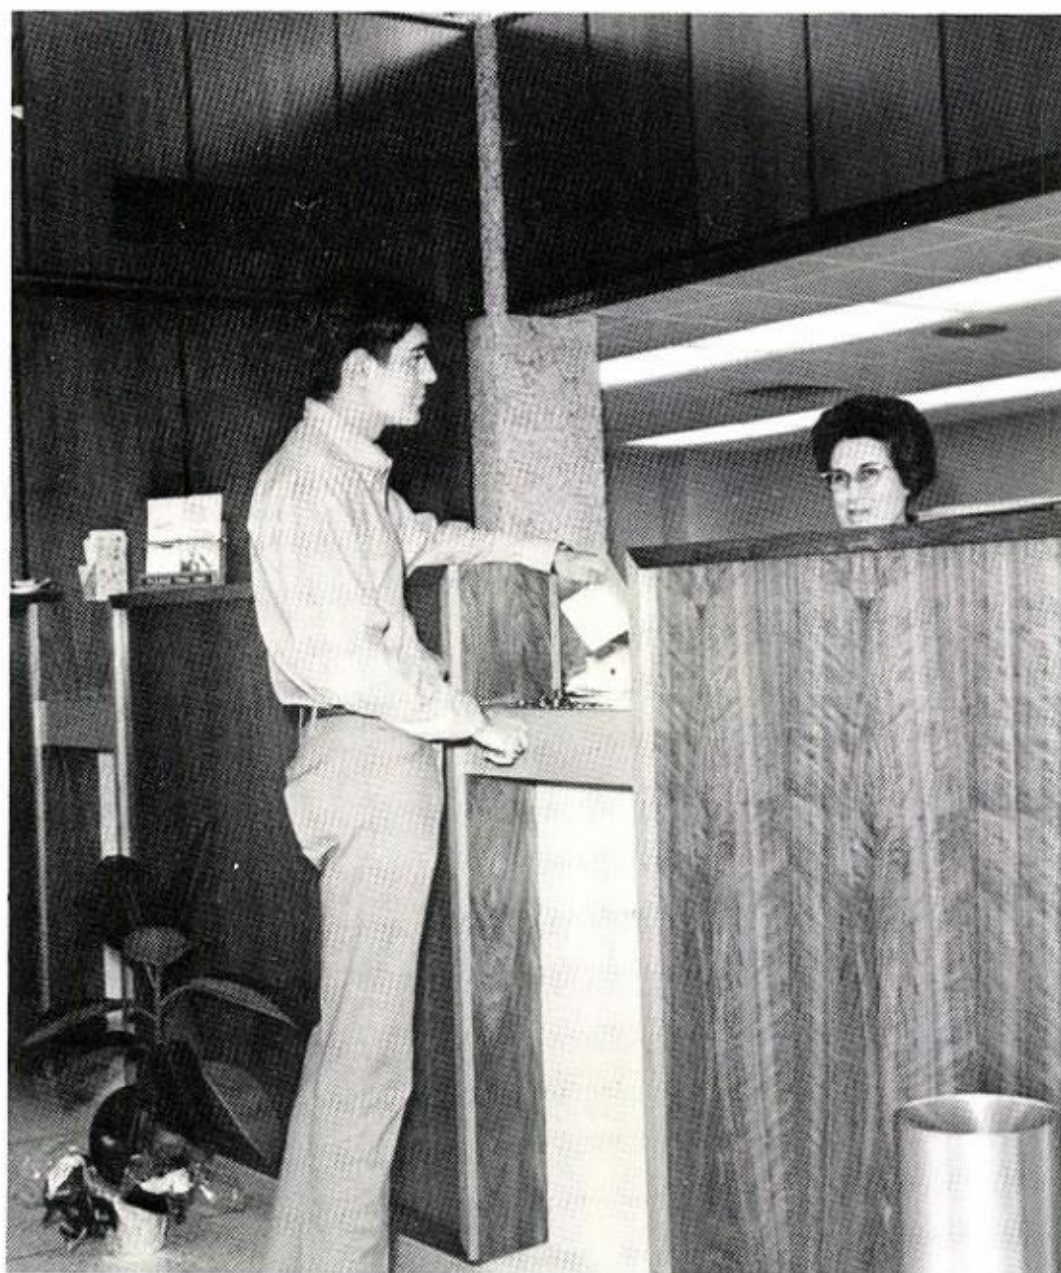

Enterprise Traces a Large Circle

The Changing of a Community

Local merchants in Stephenville are proud of their share in the 1968 JACKET. Certainly no book is possible without their co-operation and support, nor would it be complete without exhibiting Stephenville's many fine businesses. This is truly a "productive year" for business, one that witnesses both the extensive downtown renovation and the completion of a bright new Stephenville Plaza shopping center. Other firms move to new locations on the South Loop. To inform the public, the businessman needs an advertising medium—the JACKET. In this way he supports our book and at the same time reaches teenagers who hold a great deal of the purchasing power of our country. The result is a closer relationship between the merchant and customer. Also found in this section are the faculty directory, senior statistics, and faculty and student indices.

One thousand three hundred forty-one . . .
One thousand three hundred forty-two . . .
Adhering to the adage, "Save for a rainy day," Jerry Jackson saves every penny and deposits it at STEPHENVILLE SAVINGS and LOAN, 442 West Washington. It's always good to have a little extra money on hand, and your dollar earns more interest at STEPHENVILLE SAVINGS and LOAN.

David Deaver satisfies his huge appetite with a juicy hamburger from DAIRYLAND, 966 West Washington. When you eat a, DAIRYLAND burger, you don't have to look under the pickle to find the meat. They serve large, thick hamburger patties, so tender and tasty that they satisfy even the largest appetite. Ummmmm good!!

"Hey, wanta drag?" Linda Jones knows that Guyron Moring is just kidding because Chevrolet can't be beat. In looks, handling, and low price, Chevrolet is way ahead of all the others. Take the way it rides, for example. Smooth. Quiet. Sure feeling. No car is built with more easy-care features, either. Sure, you can pay more for a car, but you won't get more. See your Chevrolet dealer, JONES CHEVROLET COMPANY, 185 North Graham. He has your car.

HUGON'S CLOTHIERS, 148 West College, is the men's store serving SHS's "in" crowd. Bob Scott is only one of the many high school boys who select their wardrobe from the wide choice of clothes at HUGON'S. There they find the newest in young men's apparel to give them the "in" look.

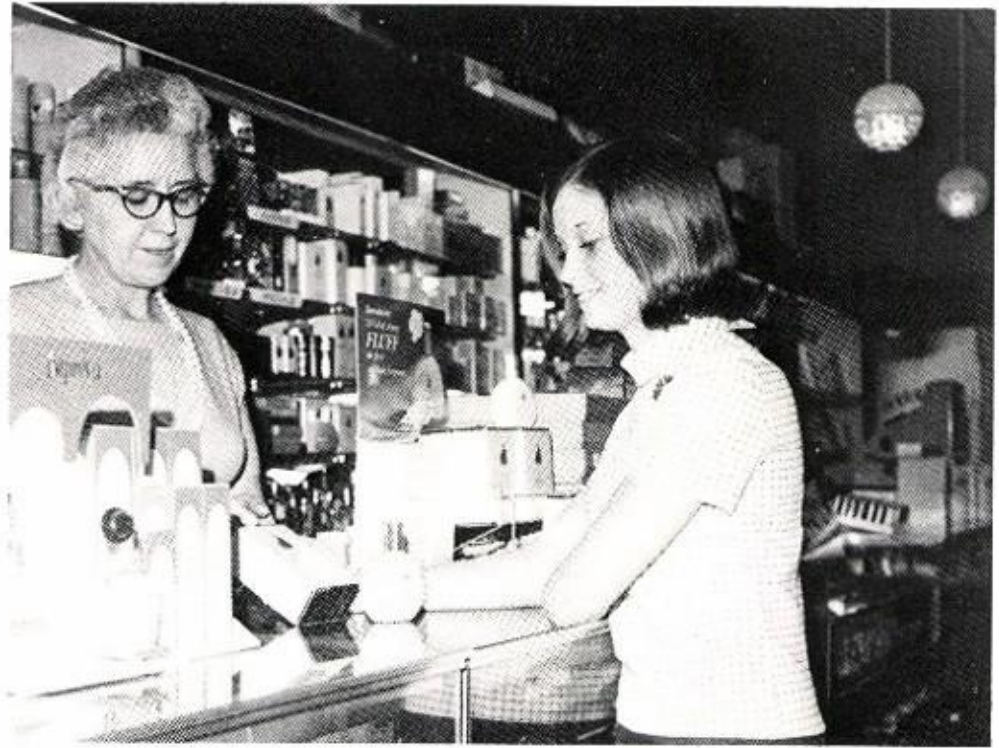

Get away from the everyday routine and relax at the HOLIDAY MOTEL on the Dublin Highway. Like Sherri Foster and Debbie Waldie, you can enjoy the swimming pool and later dine in the restaurant. You'll ask, "Why didn't we do this before?" (And you'll plan to do it again, too!)

Would you wear bobby socks? A beehive hairdo? Too gross to contemplate? Well, then, girls as smart as you and Debi Lucas will dig the fashion "pizzazz" of clothes from MODE O' DAY, 157 West Washington.

Linda Dalby knows that she can find the fragrance that's "her" at SLAUGHTER'S. SLAUGHTER DRUG STORE, 201 West Washington, has what you're looking for, whether it's cosmetics, gifts, cards, or drugs.

ANDERSON MOTOR COMPANY, 810 East Road, lets you escape from dull driving. Phyllis Dowell and Cathy Rampley found all kinds of Pontiacs, Buicks, and American Motors cars. Excitement—that's a car from ANDERSON'S. Isn't that what you want to escape to!

Make the most of being a girl. MERLE NORMAN can help you discover the things that make you exciting with a service they alone offer: complimentary creative make-up lessons. Isn't it time someone brought out the best in you?

Ann Trammell asks, "How long has it been since you've taken a close look at the treads on your tires? Are they worn with age?" Don't put off buying new tires. Your driving safety depends on quality tires. Go by BURNS TIRE COMPANY, 1380 North Graham, and see how their tires stack up.

Bill Trammell and Susan Eure model outfits chosen from R. E. COX COMPANY, 166 S. Belknap. Bill donned a turtle neck shirt and a plaid sport coat. Susan picked a simple dress appropriate for school, date, or church. Add to your wardrobe today at COX'S.

With just a little help at first from Len Johnson, Ann Couch finds that driving a boat is as easy as can be, especially if it is a boat from BILL JOHNSON MARINE. For summer fun on the water, stop in at 305 East Washington. It's the greatest way to make waves.

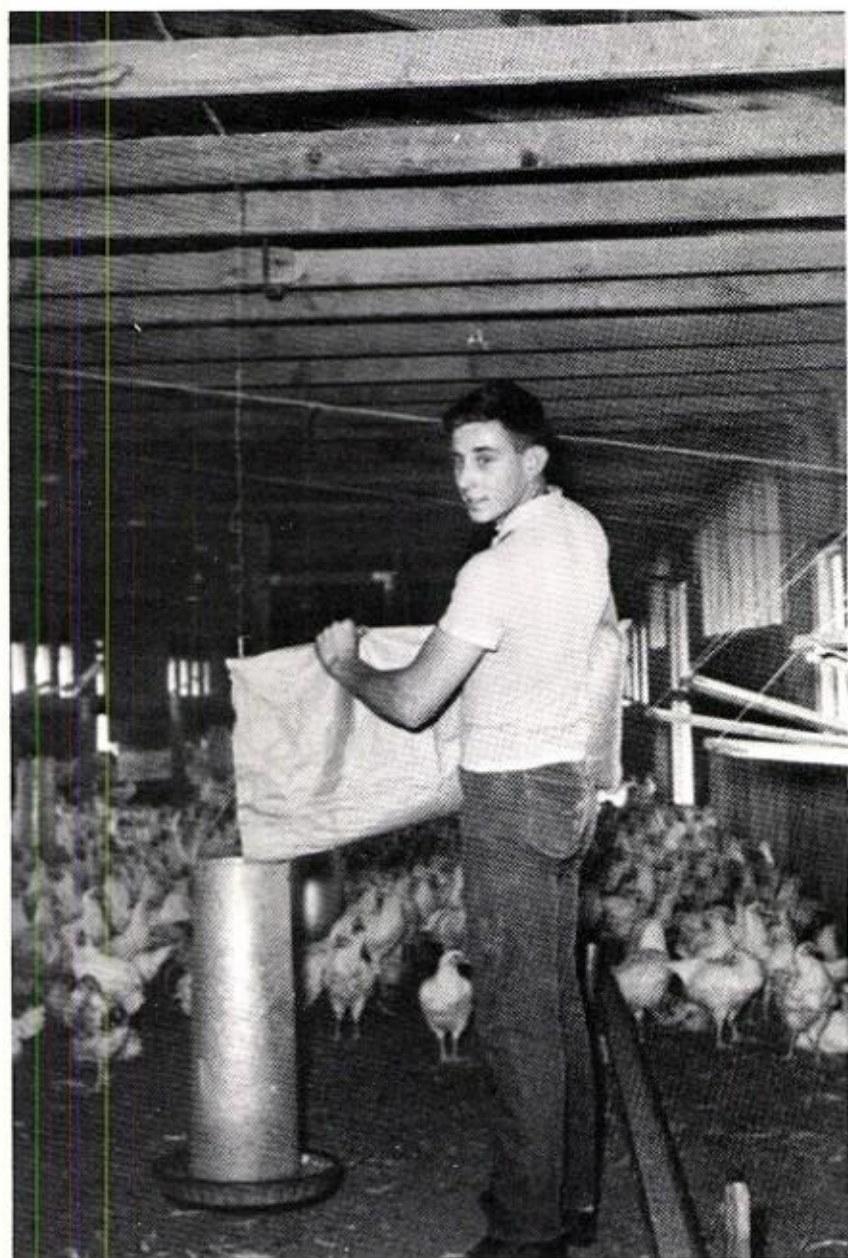

A mysterious blonde or a bold brunette . . . You can be either with a variety of wigs from the PLAZA VILLA SALON located in the Stephenville Plaza Shopping Center. Nika McNeill owns several hairpieces so she can change her hair style with her moods.

Larry Richards knows that all a boy needs to impress the girls is a smile and smartlooking clothes. You can get the clothes at CHRISTIAN BROTHERS MEN'S STORE. The smile is up to you.

Randy Pack and Nellwyn Garner find out that it happens to the best of them. Who hasn't run out of gas at least once? Well, when it does happen, call LEON PACK'S MOBIL STATION, 1421 North Graham. If your luck's really bad, they also fix flats.

What's this — a moving "sit-in" demonstration? Yes, it is, in a way! These are young people showing the people of Stephenville that they are interested in community betterment. They are TEEN CENTER members, a really gung-ho group. Part of the Recreation Department, these youth elect officers, organize parties and games, and sponsor big dances for the high school-college crowd.

Ride 'em No. 85! Who's that on the mower? Why it's Danny Brown ridin' herd down at MONTGOMERY WARD and CO. CATALOG STORE, 199 N. Belknap. He has that ear-to-ear grin of satisfaction that you see on every WARD'S customer.

This workman may need Lava soap when she's through. She? That's Marilyn Pack showing her skill for PACK BROS. CONTRACTORS, 211 Rowland. Her family will help you with whatever work needs to be done — bulldozing, hauling, all kinds of dirt work. What's that about women drivers?

Gary Crews says, "Remember, you always find fast and efficient service at our place — CREWS REPAIR SERVICE, 504 E. Clifton."
